Raymond Allen, who recently broke his arm, is showing good courage by attending school regularly.

Mrs. Floy Barber is substituting in grade four while Mrs. Jennings is home on account of the death of her mother.

U. V. M. Graduates Get Together at Barton.

Twenty Orleans County graduates of the University of Vermont assembled at Hotel Barton, Wednesday evening, to consider organizing an Orleans County Alumni association of the university.

President Guy W. Bailey, Registrar John O. Baxendale and Prof. J. E. Donahue of the University were present and following the banquet Prof. J. E. Stevens of Barton academy acted for the committee who issued the call for the meeting, turned matters over to Mr. Baxendale who presided and spoke of the aims of alumni associations and that strong alumni associations were a factor with any college.

Following his talk it seemed to be the sense of those present that a county organization be perfected and a nominating committee composed of W. T. Abell and Dr. C. B. Rublee of Newport and Miss Grace Annis of Barton were named a nominating committee who later reported C. L. Cowles of Craftsbury for president; Mrs. Mabel Thompson of Barton, vice president; G. E. Stevens of Barton, secretary; B. R. Buchanan of Glover, treasurer; executive committee, Asa Brown and Dorris Carpenter of Newport and Charles Rising of Orleans.

President Bailey touched upon some of the high lights in the University's history and told of the aims of the college in making it a university covering all phases in education. He told of the increasing college spirit.

The program was interspersed with college songs and a very pleasant evening was spent. There are 69 U. V. M. graduates in Orleans county.

County Jersey Breeders Hold Cooperative Sale.

The Orleans County Jersey Cattle club held its first annual consignment sale of Jerseys on the fair grounds Thursday, October 26. Thirty head were sold, 16 registered and 14 grades. Prices did not run high, but the weather was cold and some of the cattle were not in good condition to sell. Could this sale have been held earlier in the season the crowd and prices would have been larger.

Henderson Trio First Attraction in Glover Course.

The Henderson Trio, which is to appear at the Glover Community course at the evening of Wednesday, November 8, as the first number of the Lyceum Course, is made up of three individual artists, any one of whom is qualified in every way to present a full evening's program. Each member of the Trio has studied extensively with prominent Boston vocal teachers and the company was organized and coached by one of the most competent producers of Lyceum companies.

One of the important and entertaining features of the program is the Scotch impersonations in costume, a feature which never fails to please. This part of the program includes many of the old Scotch songs, such as "Wee Hoose 'mang the Heather," "She's the Lass for Me," "Wearing Kilts," "I Hate to Get Up in the Morning," etc. The program includes other impersonations, also readings, both musical and dramatic, and dramatic sketches. The music includes both the light and classical. They introduce many entertaining novelty features throughout the program, all of which will make the program most enjoyable.

Those who have heard the Trio during the last few seasons have stated that the vocal work of the three equals from the standpoint of melody and artistic worth, many of the popular male quartets of the country.

The "Magazine" fair under the auspices of the Ladies' Society of the Congregational church, was held in the church parlors on Wednesday afternoon, October 25th, drawing the usual large crowd, and was a success financially as well as in a social way. ### Baird Makes Statement.

To the Independent Voters of the Town of Barton:

A petition for my nomination as Independent candidate for town representative was filed with the town clerk at Barton within the time required by law, containing the required number of signatures.

At the eleventh hour an objection to the petition was filed by Mr. E. W. Barron as a voter at the request of F. D. Thompson.

In this objection Mr. Barron complains that the petition was improperly filed as to technical details and requests that the town clerk refuse to place my name on the ballot as an Independent candidate.

This objection was allowed and as there is not time to have the ruling changed if it has a right to be, it will have to stand.

My name, however, will appear on the official ballot as the Democratic candidate for town representative and the Independent voters of this town to support my candidacy as such and assert their rights in an unmistakable measure.

Shall justice and fair play prevail? Pliny W. Baird. Barton, Vt., Oct. 30, 1922.

Methodist Church Notes

Rev. M. A. Turner, pastor. Morning worship 10.30. Sunday school 10 o'clock. Junior League 4 o'clock. Epworth League 6 o'clock. Union service at Congregational church 7 o'clock.

Thursday evening prayer meeting 7.30 o'clock.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society will meet with Mrs. John Miller Tuesday, November 7, at 2.30 o'clock. All ladies who were privileged to hear the splendid address on Mexico, given by Miss Paige Sunday evening, will be glad to hear her again at this meeting. A cordial invitation is extended to all ladies of the church whether members of the W. F. M. S. or not.

Two services of special interest were held in the Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday, October 22. In the morning Rev. F. H. Morgan of Wollaston, Mass., field agent for the Zion's Herald, gave a splendid address on "Good Literature," and the advantages to the laymen, as well as the preacher of informing himself through his own church paper, of the activities of his denomination.

At the evening session Dr. J. M. Gilpin, area secretary for New England, gave one of his masterly addresses on the world program as being carried out by the Centenary movement. Among other things he spoke of the wonderful influence of Christianity throughout India, also the splendid accomplishments of our institutional churches in the large cities of America.

Addresses such as we were privileged to listen to on Sunday must of necessity extend our vision and be of great benefit to all who hear them.

RECENT DEATHS

Mary J. Norris.

Mary J. Norris, who has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Katherine Jennings, of Park street, for about 18 years, and previously made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Cora Winslow, died at the Jennings home Monday morning following 14 weeks of gradual failing, the result of a shock.

Mrs. Norris was 87 years of age and until this summer has been in comparatively good health. She has been in Barton 25 years and was known to many of the older inhabitants as a quiet home-loving woman of gentle disposition, respected and loved by all who knew her. She was a member of the Congregational church.

She was born in Newport July 10, 1835, married A. T. Norris at Derby, Vt., and they lived in West Charleston 38 years. Besides the two daughters mentioned, she leaves three grandchildren.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon from the Jennings home on Park street. Rev. M. A. Turner officiating and interment was in the Brownington Center cemetery.

Mary Emily Thompson.

In the passing of Mary E. Thompson another of Barton's oldest citizens has gone. Mrs. Thompson would have been 90 years of age on December 23, having been born in this town in 1832. She had been sick for several years with Bright's disease.

Mrs. Thompson had been living with her daughter, Mrs. H. E. Allard, on High street for the past seven years and leaves one daughter, Mrs. Allard, one son, George W. Holtham, of West Bridgewater, Mass., and two sisters, Mrs. Altha Orcutt, of Willoughby, and Mrs. Diana Foster, of Marshfield, and several grandchildren. She had lived in Glover and was also a resident of Canada for several years.

She was a member of the Methodist church and funeral services were held from the Allard home Saturday. Rev. M. A. Turner officiating and burial was in the Willoughby cemetery.

CARD—We wish to thank the friends and neighbors who assisted us in the sickness and death of our loved one.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Allard, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Holtham and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Pettigill, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hinton, Miss Beatrice Allard.

A number of Glover people attended the chicken-pie supper at West Glover last Friday evening and enjoyed a most excellent supper.

Glover can probably report the first freeze-up of the season. During the cold snap the water system on the Buswell Leonard place was frozen.

Tuesday evening Mrs. Josephine Christie gave a party in honor of the birthday of her sister, Mrs. Carrie Corliss. A large number of old friends and new made merry. A musical program was enjoyed and re-
